Tides is a grief support organization dedicated to serving grieving individuals of all ages by providing a healthy and compassionate support system so no one has to grieve alone. We offer a safe, judgement-free environment to help individuals of all ages journey through their individual healing process. Tides hosts peer grief support groups, offers educational and guidance sessions, provides crisis response support, and offers tangible resources such as books and comfort items to provide hope and encouragement to families. Each program Tides offers is free of charge to all participants. We are able to provide these programs at no cost because of the generosity of our community.
